Sustainable Living

Today, conscious travelers prioritize responsible travel practices and environmental awareness. At The Sukhothai Shanghai, sustainability is at the heart of everything. From green architecture and energy-saving techniques to environmentally friendly practices, every aspect of the hotel promotes a sustainable lifestyle. With a strong commitment to environmental responsibility, the hotel has earned LEED certification, showcasing its dedication to minimizing its ecological footprint. Experience the harmony between luxury and eco-consciousness while enjoying your stay.

One of the key aspects of The Sukhothai Shanghai’s efforts is its focus on energy conservation. The hotel has implemented cutting-edge technologies, such as in-room dining ordering through TV and paperless processes. By removing unnecessary letterheads and envelopes from guestrooms, they have significantly reduced paper consumption and waste. Additionally, The Sukhothai Shanghai has installed a rooftop solar power system for water heating. This renewable energy source reduces the hotel’s reliance on conventional power and helps to mitigate the impact of its operations on the environment.

The hotel is also leading the way in water conservation. Embracing innovative practices, The Sukhothai Shanghai has implemented a rainwater irrigation system to irrigate its elegant gardens. This approach not only reduces the reliance on freshwater sources but also ensures lush greenery throughout the year.

In an effort to reduce plastic waste, The Sukhothai Shanghai has removed all plastic bottles from its premises. Guests are provided glass bottled water, which not only helps to protect the environment but also enhances the overall guest experience.

Moreover, the hotel has incorporated the use of diatom silica clay walls, a natural material that contributes to improved air quality and better thermal insulation. This, coupled with static technology implemented in guestrooms, ensures a comfortable and sustainable stay for guests.

Additionally, The Sukhothai Shanghai has installed a rooftop solar power system for water heating. This renewable energy source reduces the hotel's reliance on conventional power and helps to mitigate the impact of its operations on the environment.

The Sukhothai Shanghai is leading the way in integrating sustainability into the hospitality industry. Through its forward-thinking approach and commitment to eco-friendly practices, the hotel is setting a new standard for sustainable living. Guests can enjoy a luxurious experience while knowing that their stay is contributing to a greener and more environmentally conscious world.
