Aesthetic Space

Art appears and flows through various spaces at The Sukhothai Shanghai. Walking freely through "Four Seasons, a 1000 Years Terraced Rice Fields - Tashibunoshō" (interactive digital imaging art by Japanese teamLab team) located in the lobby on the first floor, The scenery of Tashibunoshō has remained for thousands of years. It is depicted here through the lives of the people who continue to live in the harmony with nature in this perpetual landscape. "Every moment is present and fleeting; every moment is a gift of life, good or bad."

"Flowers and People" (interactive digital imaging art by Japanese teamLab team) is located in the corridor on the first floor, created by a computer program that continuously renders the work in real time, the flowers are born, bloom, then in the course of time they wither, carrying frames that keep developing.

Next to La Scala on the lobby, "Fountain" (Seon-Ghi Bahk, Korea) depicts the moment when the waterfall cascades down and stop in the mid-air. This artwork invites an invigorating and thought-provoking atmosphere, perfectly interprets the dynamic beauty of the waterfall flowing into the spring, hiding eternity in a moment.

Located on the side of the passenger elevator on the first floor, it's hard to miss the charm of "Layers of Tranquility", radiating like an elegant crystal orb akin to raindrops on glass, this magical artwork shows time and puts the chaos of city life at a halt.

The iconic masterpiece located in La Scala, this artwork from Christian de Laubadère, depicts the dramatic tension of the characters, transporting you from the oriental aesthetics of Shanghai to the lively carnivals in Venice.
